Dear Saints

The Olympic Torch will arrive in Cape Town this firstcoming Saturday, 12 June 2004. This is an event of tremendous spiritual significance:

According to Nocsa: "For the first time, the ATHENS 2004 Olympic Torch Relay brings the Olympic Flame to Africa and South America and includes all five land masses represented by the Olympic Rings, in line with the theme for the event - 'Pass the Flame, Unite the World.' "

For this journey, the torch was originally lit in Greece by the rays of the SUN, using a concave mirror to converge them (almost like a magnifying glass). This ritual was conducted by young women, clad as ZEUS priestesses - at the original site of the games in ancient Olympia, southwestern Greece.

THIS IS TIME FOR THE WATCHMEN AND -WOMEN TO TAKE THEIR STAND.
